உணவும், நீரும் தருகின்ற தானத்துக்குச்
சமமான தானமும் இல்லை, ஏகாதசி விரதத்தைக்
காட்டிலும் சிறந்த விரதமும் இல்லை,
காயத்திரியை விடச் சிறந்த மந்திரமும் இல்லை,
தாயினும் சிறந்த தெய்வமும் இல்லை.

சத்தியம்

மனமும் வாக்கும் ஒன்றாக அமைவது சத்தியம்.
சத்தியத்தையே சொல்லிச் சொல்லிப் பழக்கம் செய்து
விட்டால் மனம் சத்தியத்தையே நினைக்கும்; வாக்கும்
சத்தியத்தையே சொல்லும். அப்போது சொல்பவை
எல்லாம் சத்தியமாகவே இருக்கும். தவறி ஒன்றைச்
சொல்லும் அந்த சொல் சத்தியமாகவே முடியும்.
உள்ளதையே – உள்ளத்தில் நினைப்பதையே – சொல்லும்
வாக்கு அப்படியே பலிக்கும். தவறி சொன்னாலும் அது
நடந்துவிடும். வார்த்தை சத்தியாவது சத்தியத்தினால்தான்.

The desire to succeed.
The willingness to work hard.
Consistent efforts.

THE number of vehicles on the roads is increasing every day. Two wheelers (i.e.)

motor cycles, scooters and mopeds constitute 60 to 65 per cent of these vehicles. With limited road space available it is very essential that two wheeler riders should follow road rules to prevent accidents. In the alphabet of road safety rules, the letters are:

A - Always wear clothes that suit you and be alert always.

B - Both riders (the driver and the pillion rider) should wear fibre glass reinforced plastic type helmets (BIS 4151). Do not make alterations to the helmet to suit personal convenience.

C - Children should not be made to stand in front on a scooter or made to sit on the petrol tank of a motorcycle.

D - Decisions must be taken by the driver only when turning, stopping and overtaking.

E - Ensure that the clutch, brakes, tyres, tubes and lights are working.

F - Fatigue must be avoided, Sufficient rest is a must before one rides on a vehicle.

G - Go slow while passing animals and animal drawn carts and "L" board vehicles.

H - Hand signals must be indicated whenever necessary only by the driver.

I - Identify pot holes and unauthorised speed breakers without zebra stripes to avoid accidents.

J - Jumping signals should be avoided (i.e.) passing the signal head without getting the correct signal.

K - Know the significance of road markings (vertical and horizontal types). The important ones are the centre yellow line, the white yellow line, the broken white line for cycle tracks, the arrow for turning, the stop line, the zebra crossing.

L - Learn the language of the road (i.e.) (signs and signals). Signs:

Mandatory signs : (e.g) Halt and go, No "U" turn.

Cautionary signs : (e.g) Narrow bridge, hairpin bend, road dip.

Informatory signs : (e.g) parking place, petrol bunk, eating place.

Signals : 1. Driver's hand signals.

2. Policemen hand signals.

3. Electrical signals.

M - Make sure no pedestrian is crossing in front of or behind a stationary vehicle while passing by such a vehicle.

N - Not to get distracted by boardings, posters.

O - Over - speeding must be avoided and overtaking must be done with caution.

P - Parking should be at right places only.

Q - Quality of spare parts must be ensured before using them. Buy genuine spare parts from an authorised dealer.

R - Road bends and curves must be negotiated carefully by slowing down.

S - Skidding must be avoided by not using bald tyres and being wary of oil spills, slush, molten tar, dry leaves.

T - Two wheeler riders shouldn't get in between two large vehicles like lorries, buses. If the vehicle in front suddenly applies brakes the rear vehicle will hit the two wheeler leading to an accident.

U - Use both brakes simultaneously

V - Vehicles should not be loaded with bulky or large materials. You would not like being toppled over.

W - Weaving is to be avoided, (i.e.) not sticking to one lane and moving between one lane and the other.

X - Xylaphonic vibration in a pleasant form is comparable to the road rules observed in correct form.

Y - Yellow line is the life line or the heart line and is not to be crossed.

Z - Zebra crossing. If not controlled by electrical traffic signals or a traffic policeman, give right of way to pedestrians.
